News and information for the members of the Maryland Orchid Society

May 2013

May's Speaker is Tony Silva of Silva Orchids

Tony Silva will be speaking this month about the history of the orchid business and its future. He is a second generation orchid grower who, along with his brother Joe, operates Silva Orchids in Neptune, N.J. The brothers sell premium quality flowering orchids and other orchid specimens to the high end flower shops in New York City. Their greenhouses are open to the public on Fridays and Saturdays. They also have an online catalog.

Silva Orchids was founded in 1957 by August Silva. "Gus" started growing orchids in 1934 and became known for his superb orchid culture. In 1977 his sons, Anthony and Joseph took over the business after Gus' passing and have continued the tradition of producing only quality orchids.

The company has received over 75 AOS awards and they were the winner of the 2006 Ernest Hetherington Award for the best plant grown in the country for that same year and the Robert Dugger Award for the best Odontoglossum grown in 2005.

Silva Orchids is the home of the Shore Orchid Festival held annually in June. The festival boasts 20 vendors from around the world with AOS Judging, free lecture and workshops. For more information visit the web site at silvaorchids.com

MOS @ SEPOS – A Success! by Sarah Hurdel

Special thanks to:

Valerie Lowe –picking up and caring for plants until I could get them – registration data entry – and years of training

Barry Woolf – Photographing and watering the MOS exhibit during the show.

Ann Lundy – for picking up and caring for plants dropped off at the MOS Workshop

Gary Smith – living with 200 extra plants, a frazzled girlfriend and no home cooked meals for over a week. Most of all – as much as he may have wanted to – for not abandoning me during setup!

Clark Riley – for the enthusiastic write up on the website, and help during setup, and teardown.

Also, thanks to Jos Venturina, Maria Santos, and Eric Wiles for helping to tear down the exhibit.

To Margaret Smith for helping Gary and I load up on setup day.

And most of all thank you (again) to Valerie Lowe – for giving me the knowledge and confidence over the years to step up and volunteer to put in this exhibit in her absence. I am fortunate to have such a great friend and mentor, and the society is fortunate to have her as Away Show Chair!

Thanks to those who were kind enough to lend their plants for the exhibit -

A Night at the Museum (Based on a True Story)

Winner of The Show Trophy (best exhibit in the SEPOS Show), People's Choice Award (votes of the public), Best Plant in Show (Michael Moran's , AWESOME Cattleya intermedia var. orlata), And a cast of dozens of Blue, Red, Yellow, and White Ribbons and Rosettes.

This is the story of an innocent young couple [Sarah Hurdel (What's Eating Your Orchids?) and Gary Smith (The E-Mail Master of MOS)] who travel from a Mid-Atlantic seaport [Baltimore] in the early Spring to the legendary Birthplace of Liberty [Philadelphia] for a simple afternoon setting up an orchid show [SEPOS]. Little did they know, they would wind up TRAPPED IN THE MUSEUM in the dead of night.

The first sign of trouble was the burgeoning number of plants multiplying in two vans. In ominous foreshadowing, their departure was delayed by several hours. By the time the youngsters arrive in Philadelphia, the mysterious foot print of the orchids had doubled and re-doubled. They were alive! Sunset arrived and a wall of orchids rose where once had been a simple sheet of black plastic. The couple exchanged "cheerful" banter as computer glitches and identity crises slowed theirs task. Their loyal label and lunch lackey [Clark Riley] abandoned them and fled back to Baltimore, passing the intrepid exhibitors into the care of THE MUSEUM SECURITY STAFF after sunset. They were nearly alone with the pandas, extinct mammals, and DINOSAURS! Evening came and went as the plants expanded across the floor. Only with sunrise the following day did the torrent of orchids settle into a manageable mass. They left, tired but alive, as judges flooded the finished space.

When the young couple returned in the safety of daylight, they found the exhibit awash in ribbons and trophies. They had vanquished the mighty SEPOS and NCOS warriors! The terrifying night had been worth it.
